

Reflective Writing Assignment

Name: Robert Alatorre

1.) What was your contribution to the class?

My contribution to the class was by participation in class discussions, giving class presentations, and by collaborating with classmates on in-class assignments and projects.

2.) Are you satisfied with your contribution to this class? Explain your answer.

I am satisfied with my contribution to this class because it gave me an opportunity to further develop my collaborative and presentation skills.

3.) How do you view your team effort for the group project?

I would view my team effort as giving full determination as a team member by being supportive to my team member whenever they had a question or suggestion. As well as being dependable by working on the project in a timely manner to avoid last-minute work.

4.) How would you grade your skills as team player: Rate your communication and problem solving skills (scale 1-10). Explain your rating.

I would rate my communication and problem-solving skills as 9 or 10. I brainstormed various solutions to different problems our group encountered, and I communicated possible solutions to my team member effectively and clearly.

5.) What are your key learning's out of this class?

Key learning's that I've taken from this class are essential to understanding the core-concepts behind retail operations in fashion. Aside from the lessons taken directly from lectures, I've also developed stronger skills in doing collaborative work, class presentations, and team-communication.

6.) What would you like to improve in your performance? (Team working skills, communication, presentation skills eg.). Explain why.

I would like to further improve my presentation skills by trying different techniques to reduce my nerves during class presentations, because I often feel anxious and somewhat nervous when I begin speaking.

7.) Which learning's do you think you will benefit most of in future?

I strongly feel that all of the lessons I've taken from this course will be very beneficial to me in the future with my education, career and in everyday life. However, lessons in communication, collaborative work, and retail concepts will benefit me the most in the future.
